

RECENT OPERATIONS

By Paul Rardin

I want to welcome all of the new subscribers to our family circle this week. Mrs. Albert Snyder has been soliciting new subscribers in the Pahokee-Canal Point area and results of her work have been amazing. To each new subscriber we pledge to do our utmost to give the local news each week. The Everglades News is a country weekly—we claim no kinship to metropolitan-styled newspapers. To those of you who this week are joining our family circle—we say WELCOME!

For a few weeks I have been rather lax about producing this column. At times it seemed there were not enough hours in a day to get all my work done. Several of our regular readers had mentioned the fact that "Recent Operations" had been missing now and then. But, this week, when I received an air mail letter from India calling my attention to the absence of "Recent Operations" from the Paper, I decided to get busy and produce it weekly. My friend in India said that for years he had been turning to this column the very first thing. After that he read the rest of the paper. "Do you blame me for expending an extra effort to do something about it?"

Over our morning coffee a friend of mine, reading the morning paper about a strike by the fishermen on the east coast, said: "The price of fish will come down. A lot of folks are caught up with their fish eating since rationing was started many months ago. And, now that meat rationing is ended, it looks to me like the fishermen picked a poor time to strike." A little more comment by the group enjoying morning coffee and my friend ended with this remark: "I'll bet a few shekels that the whole deal will end up with the price of fish a great deal less than it is now."

5 Young Service Men Back From War On Lions Program

Featured on the program at the Tuesday luncheon meeting of Pahokee Lions were brief talks by visiting war veterans including Earl Lindrose, Edward Jensen, John Padgett, Jerry Gold and Lake Coleman.

Rev. Joe A. Tolle of Bradenton, also a visitor, spoke of the early days of football at Pahokee. Formerly pastor of the Pahokee Methodist Church, Rev. Tolle assisted in organizing football at Pahokee High School and coached the first team. The first touchdown made by a Pahokee high school team was run by John Padgett, he said.

Present at the meeting were Frank Dooley, Frank Hobson and Henry Earwood of the Belle Glade Lions Club who outlined plans for presenting the Lions Trophy to the winner of the Pahokee-Belle Glade game to be played at Belle Glade on the night of Dec. 7. A big demonstration will be held on the field between halves and included in the trophy presentation at the close of the game will be the mayors of both towns, presidents of the two Lions Clubs, coaches and principals of both high schools and sponsors and captains of both teams.

It was announced that finally after weeks of unrelenting effort on the part of local civic organization, the government has consented to reconvert the Pahokee Migratory Labor Camp for use by white migrant labor. The camp will be changed within the next week or two, it was said.

Equipment Here For Work On Palm Beach Highway

Equipment rolled into Canal Point yesterday and more is to come this week end for work on rebuilding Connors highway east from Canal Point for a distance of 5.4 miles. The John A. Benton Construction company of St. Petersburg has the contract. Work will start just as soon as all of the equipment arrives.

LT. JERRY GOLD HOME

Lt. Jerry Gold is home on leave from the army after arriving in the states a few days ago from the European Theatre of Operations. Lt. Gold is visiting relatives and will return to Camp Blanding at the end of his leave where he will be separated from the service.

Service Station Will Be Erected

Canal Point is to have another modern and up-to-date filling station. It is being erected in the packing house center by C. J. Hendry and Coleman Brothers of Savannah are the contractors. The building which will also house a restaurant will be 40x40 and built out of concrete blocks. Mr. Hendry recently purchased the property from Mr. and Mrs. James T. Cook of Belle Glade.

Mr. Hendry said that his plans call for another story to be built on the building in a year or two. Mr. and Mrs. Al Pickard will move their restaurant from its present location to the new building upon its completion. The filling station will handle Texaco products, Mr. Hendry said.

State Spent Forty One Million For Roads During War

TALLAHASSEE—Despite labor and material shortages, Florida built or reconstructed nearly 1,300 miles of roads and bridges on the State maintained highway system during the war at a cost of more than $41,000,000.

Much of this money was provided by the Federal government and 140 miles of the road work, mostly new construction, was on access highways to Army and Navy installations in the State.

Some major links in the highway system were built during the war years, however, notably the Overseas Highway to Key West and the section of the West Coast Highway between Chiefland and the Pinellas County line. The construction figures does not include the $3,564,510 paid for Davis Causeway and the Gandy Bridge which were purchased by the State and made toll free.

In addition to the war time construction and rebuilding program, the Road Department spent nearly three million dollars a year on maintaining old highways and bridges.

Even with its war time expenditures, the Road Department emerged into peace time with a balance of about $14,000,000 on hand, and plans for spending about $30,000,000 a year on the highway system during the next few years.

RECRUITERS TO VISIT

Recruiting officers from the West Palm Beach office will visit Pahokee once each week on Thursday from 8 a. m. until 5 p. m. They will be found at the Veterans' bureau in the Pahokee city hall in case you are thinking about signing up for a hitch in the army.

OPA Ruling Forces Shirley Block Factory To Close

Shirley Brothers cement block plant in Pahokee is idle today after a busy two-month period when they couldn't keep up with the steady stream of orders flowing into the concern. The plant was closed yesterday after notification from OPA that blocks could not be sold in the Lake Region at a price any higher than they are sold on the lower east coast of Florida—11c and 13c.

Shirley Brothers opened their plant only a short time ago and at that time filed their 18c to 20c price with OPA. Thinking that they automatically had received the green light for manufacture when no adverse ruling came from OPA, Shirley Brothers started manufacture and for several weeks have been running at full capacity in an effort to serve folks in this section who are perfectly willing and happy in paying the asked price for blocks.

Then, boom, along comes the Washington alphabet outfit, with offices in Miami, and throws a monkey wrench into the works.

This Story Is A Little Cock-Eyed But It Makes Good Reading

Have you ever seen a dog-faced cat? No? Too bad, 'cause a few days ago if you had dropped in at Ennis's Grocery and Cafe—that's the place on Lake Front Road, Canal Point, where Mrs. Ennis dishes out those um-yum-yum pies, egg custard, banana cream, lemon meringue, apple, blackberry, blueberry, cherry, sweet potato, pumpkin, mince, buttermilk, butterscotch, etc., just like mother used to make only better—well, anyway, if you had been there, Tom Ennis would have taken you in the back of the store where a tabby cat had a litter of newly born kittens and showed you this amazing sport of nature.

A furry, snow white blob of something that looked like a pup, cried like a pup and perhaps smelled like a pup, who knows, but there it was with the rest of the litter nursing. Tabby like a good kitten should.

Surely this was a freak that demanded the attention on no less a person than Ripley himself, however, before Tom got around to getting pen and paper together some children came to see the new kittens and, literal-minded as children are, they took the dog-cat or the cat-dog or whatacallyit and placed it in the dog kennel where Patsy, Ennis's pet watchdog, was mothering some new puppies born on the same day as the kittens.

Yep, you guessed it—Tabby evidently had taken a shine to one of Patsy's pups and kidnapped it. The sad part of this little true-life drama is the doggone attitude Patsy took toward her puppy when it was returned to her. She refused to accept it as her own and now it is back in Tabby's care leading a cat's life.

Believe it or not, Mr. Ripley, Tom used to train dogs in a more or less professional sort of way and as a canine fancier is supposed to know a dog when he sees one. It was rather shabby of Tabby, wouldn't you say, tricking Tom and Patsy both at the same time?

COVERED DISH SUPPER

Members of the Pahokee Methodist Intermediate Youth Fellowship enjoyed a covered-dish supper and party in the social hall of the church Monday night. Mrs. H. J. Anderson led in the playing of games. Fifteen young people were present.

Blue Devils Play Lake Worth Tonnite

The Pahokee Blue Devils will go to Lake Worth tonight for a game with the Lake Worth Trojans on Bullard Field. This game was originally scheduled for Wednesday night, Nov. 28, as the annual Thanksgiving Eve contest between the two teams but because of the advancing of the Thanksgiving date one week, it was postponed until Friday.

The Blue Devils, under the steady drilling by Coach Clyde Alley, are showing increased strength as the season draws near an end and are expected to play a good game against the Trojans who also are in top form. A large crowd of fans is expected to accompany the team to the East Coast tonight.

Vegetables By Air In Vast Amounts Is Seen By Mooney

ORLANDO—Speaking before the Florida State Farmers' Market meeting here recently, Dr. James E. Mooney, director of aviation for Pinellas County, stated that air transport offered almost limitless opportunities for the transportation of Florida fruits and vegetables if we prepare ourselves to make the most of the proposition.

He advocated the immediate establishment of an air cargo research and planning department of the State Department of Agriculture and a special division of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce to work closely with the U. S. Department of Agriculture and aviation authorities.

He further advocated that we direct contacts with dealers in the north and east or with wholesale houses which can expedite the produce and see to it that produce shipped by air is the finest possible to produce, selected for top quality and packaged in special containers.

Annual Memorial Service For Elks

The annual memorial service of the Elks Lodge in Pahokee will be held at 3 p. m. Sunday in the hall with Rev. S. D. Mason delivering the oration. The public is cordially invited to attend this service at which time fitting tribute will be paid to all departed brothers.

National Air Lines has inaugurated night service between Miami and Key West and now offer both daytime and night flights between these two points, it was announced, last week.

John Harrington Dies Suddenly At Port Mayaca Home

John Harrington, 51, died suddenly Thursday morning at ten ten o'clock at his home in Port Mayaca from a heart attack. He had been slightly ill for a few days with a touch of the flu and a cold, but his condition was not considered serious. Wednesday afternoon late he was in Canal Point at the barber shop for a hair cut and shave. At that time he said that he didn't feel up to par but he was far from an ill man.

For many years Mr. Harrington has been connected with the U. S. Sugar corporation at Azucar. A few months ago the Harringtons moved from Canal Point to Port Mayaca where they purchased the E. G. Kilpatrick home.

The deceased is survived by his wife, Mrs. Rachel Harrington, two sons, Lt. John S. Harrington, Jr., of the army and Donald E. Harrington of the Navy, and one daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Cooksey of Monticello.

Brothers are: J. B. Harrington of Atlanta, A. R. Harrington of Canal Point, Gaudin Harrington of Morven, Ga.; sisters: Mrs. D. C. McRae and Mrs. Arnold Scruggs of Canal Point, Mrs. Roy Lawson and Mrs. B. J. Rizer of Morven, Ga. Mrs. B. P. Harrington, his mother, and his wife, were at his bedside at the time of his death.

Eddie Hodges Chosen For State Honor At Recent Music Clinic

Eddie Hodges, clarinetist in the Pahokee High-School Band, was among the select group of high school musicians chosen to play in the 96-piece first band at the State-wide Music Clinic for school musical groups, vocal, orchestra and band, held last week, Nov. 19-20, in the Municipal Auditorium at Tampa. Bandmaster Robert O. Lampi of Pahokee was chairman of the clinic band. In addition to Eddie Hodges, he was accompanied to Tampa by Ray Hawk, Jr., and Frank Rozelle, Jr., who served as librarians for the band.

While the clinic was in session the Florida Bandmasters Association held a business meeting at which Mr. Lampi was elected secretary-treasurer of the FBA. Other officers elected were V. D. Sturgis of Sarasota, president, and Al Wright of Miami, vice president.

It was announced the State Music Contest and Festival for the judging of school bands, which was discontinued during the war, will be resumed in the spring, the first festival to be held in St. Petersburg in March or April, the date to be set later. The festival takes the place of individual band inspections held during the war.

Special Broadcast For Dec. 7th Game

Bob Delany, sports announcer for WJNO, will give a play-by-play description of the Belle Glade and Pahokee football game next Friday night over the loud speaker system to be erected especially for the game. The game will be played in Belle Glade this year and special souvenir programs are being prepared.

Athletic Council officials said that a special record will be made of the game announcements and broadcast over WJNO at a later hour. The Alfar Creamery company is sponsoring the announcer's appearance in Belle Glade and will also sponsor the broadcast of the highlights of the game.

The Easier Job

Sweeping up and down the gridiron all afternoon, a strong Ohio State team had completely overwhelmed the University of Virginia eleven. Both sides had sent in so many substitutes that the players weren't unusually worn out, but the referees were exhausted from racing after State's backs.

Late in the fourth quarter, with the score 68-0, one of the referees handed his whistle to a Virginia end and, gasping for breath, said, "Here, you referee for a while and let me play!"—Reader's Digest.

Florida's Part

Of course Florida did not win the war all by itself, but it did its part. Governor Caldwell reveals that Florida put 227,627 men in the armed services, that 3,125 of them died in line of duty, that Floridians bought $1,429,000,000 in war bonds and contributed $8,331,238 to the Red Cross, and $1,805,000 to the national war fund, which we venture to say puts us in the forefront of all states in proportion to population.—Sanford Herald.

WELCOME BACK To Your Job!

Of the 569 of our Sunshine Service members who entered the armed service, 53 are already back with us and they know how glad we, and their other friends in the community, are to have them back permanently.

To the loved ones of those 11 who gave their lives in the great cause goes our heartfelt sympathy that this sacrifice was necessary. To the hundreds still to come back, just remember that the welcome mat will stay out until you've all come home. At Lake Placid, where central Florida gets ready to merge into South Florida, the growing of lilies has become an industry worth talking about.

When Miss Jennie Reninger got ready to harvest her crop of bulbs last year, she turned to Seminole Indians for help. The labor shortage was acute and until she thought of turning to the Seminoles, she feared she might lose the crop.

The Seminoles came up and harvested the crop as they had promised. Miss Reninger found them to be excellent workers. They did their work quietly, thoroughly and methodically. Men, squaws and younguns came up from the Everglades. The Indians even brought their pigs along.

When they had harvested last year's crop, they told Miss Reninger they wanted to come back again this year. Then they went back into their Everglades home.

During the months that followed, Miss Reninger heard not one word from them. She became a bit worried. Perhaps they wouldn't show up and the crop this year would be lost.

One week before time to begin the harvest, up drove a Seminole man into Miss Reninger's yard and told her shyly, relates the Miami Herald, that the group from his tribe would report for work as promised. They reported — squaws, papooses, pigs and all — and Miss Reninger is saying some mighty fine things about the faithfulness of Seminole workers. — Lakeland Ledger.

Life On The Campus

AT PAHOKEE HIGH SCHOOL

The Home Economics classes are entertaining again—this time with a Christmas dinner. Mrs. Nason, who has previously entertained the members of the faculty, is noted throughout the school for her delicious menus, and her students expect their dinner to merit approval also. The first year class will have its party December 14, and the second year class will entertain December 17. These are occasions to which one can hope for an invitation, and, boys, possibly this hint will come in time for you "to get sociable". The invitations and the mistletoe are waiting.

In addition to their studies—and their entertaining—the Home Economics students cooperate with other classes and departments by using their equipment and special skill when needed. For example, the boys' football uniforms are subjected to much "wear and tear" and frequently need patching and darning. The girls of the sewing classes make the repairs when the coaches request their services. For boosting school spirit and departmental cooperation, the Home Economics departments sets a fine example.

The Juniors and Seniors are helping to bring back the boys and provide care for those who need it by selling Victory Bonds. Our school has become well known for its patriotic work and spirit. As you possibly remember, the school led the state in collecting scrap metal, and Dale Maxwell was the National Champion. To maintain the splendid record, the Juniors and Seniors—with the cooperation and help of the citizens in the Pahokee and Canal Point area—are sure to sell their quota of $2200, and a lot more. Those who buy bonds will be presented with a ticket to the Prince Theatre for the Bond Premiere.

Thursday night, November 13, the F. F. A. chapter, initiated the following new members: Rodney Connell, J. L. Humphries, Carroll Parker, Billy Rawls, J. E. Spooner, Charles Stamps, Tommy Sullivan, Kyle Hatfield, Jack Chiviges, Gerald Berry, Glen Boland, Gene Bowen, Earl Chance, Ralph Chaney, George Cant, Stanley Hooks, Payne Jackson, Steve Kirk, Herbert McAfee, Eugene McCall, Curtis Ray Mock, Billy Ray Moseley, George Millon, Stanley Mock, Bill Miller, John Ogle, David Ramey, Billy Roberts, James Scott, Jackie Sullivan, Otis Weaver, and Leland Hughes. The members also enjoyed a social hour in the new vocational building—and treated themselves to ice cream and cake.

To celebrate National Book Week, the library assistants arranged a program for assembly Thursday afternoon, November 15. The program opened with Nina Ruth Barwick reading a passage from the Bible. The assembled group repeated the Lord's Prayer and pledged allegiance to the flag. Following a brief talk on National Book Week by Nina Ruth, members of the sixth grade—Barbara Hadid, Louise Hatten, Bobbie Moberg, Dorothy Fields, Edna Unwin, Bobby Schroder, Dickie Atkins, and Jack Boland—sang "The Italian Street Fair," "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," and "All Hail the Night." Then Mrs. Walston's fifth grade presented a play with each person representing a character from a book and attending a book club meeting. Lynn Shirley was Jane, the hostess, and she persuaded her brother Jerry who did not like to read to be a guest. Jerry acted by Don Adams, changed his mind when he met Lou Gehrig, Charles Elliott, Tom Sawyer, Lewis Pope, Will James, Lindray Peeples, Chris Hollister, Calvin Padgett, Heidi, Roberta Hatten, Ann Bartlett, Sherry Carr, Jo March, Ann Atkins, Osa Johnson, Joan Hadid, Madam Chiang Kai-Shek, Eleanor Walker, Anna Pavlova, Elsie Stamps, Carol Jo Guthrie announced the program.

The Junior Classical League met in the gym Monday Night, November 19. Officers chosen are: President, Lynn Walker; Vice-President, Dickie Johnson; Secretary, Louise Elarbee; Treasurer, Lois Echols. Class representatives are Jasper Reed, James Latham, Peggy Moberg, and Betty Ann Sears. An official from last year's class is J. E. Spooner. After the business meeting there was a picnic supper of chicken, pickles, salad, sandwiches, and cake. Dancing began then, and, since each member had issued an invitation to a friend, the crowd was large and everyone had a wonderful time.

Pahokee High School was happy last week to have as visitors Laron Batchelor, a former student home on furlough; Charles McQuail, also on leave; and Esther Kilpatrick from F.S. C. W.

The Pan-American Club met November 19 to make some amendments to their constitution and welcome six new members to the club. Following their business meeting, Joy Padgett and Fay Gilbert presented a program on Puerto Rico. Joy's aunt, Mrs. Ralph Grimes, who lived there for awhile, provided articles for them to exhibit which included hemp handbags, hot pads, house shoes, and a mahogany tray and bowl.

Thanksgiving holidays now over, and Christmas vacation not too far off.

Soft drink makers are planning to spend $50,000,000 on postwar new plant construction.

Cinematic Chatter

By Malcolm Miller

Sunday-Monday at the Prince Theatre will be one you will remember for some time.

On these days they are screening one of Pearl Buck's best sellers, "China Skys", which is a story of China during the days before America entered the war against Japan, and when the Chinese were fighting a heroic battle against paramount odds.

In the cast are Randolph Scott, Ruth Warrick and Ellen Drew in the principal roles with one of the best casts of Chinese and American artists ever placed in one picture.

The story, like all of Miss Bucks novels, is big. The cast is huge, well chosen and clever in all of the intricate roles to be characterized, the locale is authentic and the direction is blameless.

I know you'll like it!

Helmut Dantine and Philip Dorn move in Tuesday-Wednesday with an excellent cast in support of them, presenting a dramatic story under the title "Escape in the Desert."

On the same program come Chester Morris and Lynn Merrick in another of this series under the title "Boston Blackie is Booked on Suspicion." This one is loaded with action, suspense and dramatic thrills.

On Thursday-Friday Ruth Hussey and John Carroll present a delightful comedy under the title "Bedside Manner", which promises to be a laugh riot from start to finish.

On the same program come Paul Muni and Marguerite Chapman doing a very dramatic story under the title "Counter Attack."

This is the first time Mr. Muni has graced the Prince screen in some time and I'm sure many who have seen him in past performances will welcome him back again.

Saturday brings Donald "Red" Barry and Helen Talbot with Twinkle Watts and Wally Vernon in "Canyon City."

See you at the movies—Mal.

Fishermen Will Fight Closing Of Lake Okeechobee

(Moore Haven Democrat)

More than a hundred commercial fishermen and dealers of the Lake Okeechobee area, met at the courthouse in Okeechobee Sunday, on the call of Representative W. J. Hendry, to organize for a fight against the recent ruling of the State Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission that Lake Okeechobee shall be closed to commercial fishermen effective on October 1, 1946.

The meeting was largely devoted to a general discussion of objectives and procedure and Rep. Hendry was appointed chairman of a special committee selected to carry on the fight as it sees fit.

L. M. Lilly, A. A. Beck, and J. E. Frierson were selected as members of the committee to represent Glads County.

This committee plans to meet in Moore Haven in about three weeks to approve a set of by-laws and to make further plans for the fight against the lake closing. A membership fee in the organization will probably be $100 for each dealer and $10 for each fisherman. Others, outside the industry are invited to join as honorary members, helping financially as they are willing, but voting membership is expected to be confined to the fishermen.

Mr. Lilly, in reporting the results of the meeting, said, "We hope to persuade the sport fishermen and the commission that they are wrong in seeking to close the lake but failing this we are prepared to carry the fight on into the courts."

There is still time to make your contribution to the National War Fund—This is the last call. Do your part and put Florida over the top.

If you are like most intelligent people you try to get the most value for your money. That's why this fact should be especially interesting to you: Since organization in 1907, Jefferson Standard has consistently paid 5% interest on funds held in trust for policyholders and beneficiaries. That means Jefferson Standard policy dollars are LARGER. Without cost to you, your Jefferson Standard representative will be glad to show you what this can mean to you and your family in terms of extra protection at no extra cost. Call or write today.

John A. Bowers, one of the earliest ranchers in Florida, known to friends as "Uncle Joe", dropped dead at his ranch in Indiantown, Monday morning about 10:30 o'clock while working in the field where laborers were picking squash. Born in Hampton County, S. C., 76 years ago, Mr. Bowers came to Florida in 1890 and settled in the Northern part of the State, driving cattle and raising hogs. In 1898, he moved here and went into the cattle and fruit business, clearing the land with only the help of a brother, Dessie, who died sometime ago. His ranch and groves are known all over the world as a "show place" in Florida, unique in their Western motif.

Pahokee Legion Post Okehs Move For Memorial Auditorium

The move to enlist support of other Legion Posts throughout Palm Beach County in the campaign for funds to build the War Memorial Auditorium in West Palm Beach, bore early fruit last week.
